Job Description
Job Title: Live Well Social Media Champion

	Hours of work: 7 hours per week until the end of September 2023. The job may continue after this.
	Salary: £3,685 per year (before Tax and National Insurance is taken off)
	Annual Leave: 5 days per year. You will also get bank holiday time off.
	Working in a Live Well team of 5 people: Two other Social Media Champions, and two Live Well Facilitators.
	Working for: Live Well Facilitators.
	Where: You will travel around the North East and Cumbria, and come to meetings in Newcastle upon Tyne.

What you will do – along with the other members of the Live Well team:

	You will be working in a team to create a 'social media presence'. This is using the internet and different platforms and apps such as Facebook and Instagram to share information.
	You will be getting in touch with people, visiting people and places and collecting ideas about how people can Live Well (having a happy and healthy life).
	You will be making positive stories, films and pictures of people with a learning disability and autistic people to share on social media.
	You will develop campaigns and share through social media.
	You will be helping create groups on social media where they can share good ideas with each other.

	You and your team members may be in the films and pictures shared on social media.

Other things you will do:

	You will join in regular team meetings.
	You will have regular supervision with a Live Well facilitator.
	You will follow all the rules at Skills for People.

Person Specification
What kind of person we are looking for:

We want someone who
	Has personal experience of having a learning disability or of being an autistic person.
	Has experience and interest in social media. Is happy to be in films and photographs on social media.
	Has good ideas about how people can live well, to stay healthy and happy.
	Is good at encouraging other people to live well.
	Is happy to talk with lots of people.

	Is good at listening.
	Who is good working as part of a team.
	Is willing to travel around the North East and Cumbria (either on your own, or with your support).
	Believes in equal opportunities for everyone.
It would be good if
	You know how to use a phone, a computer, or both.